RICK REED

I was in a place
 in 1966
 I think I had, and those with you are included. I hope that you'll never forget this long-haired blonde crazy Sr. as I will remember you. So until we meet again. Best of luck
 Just you

WEST SPRINGFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

SPRINGFIELD, VIRGINIA

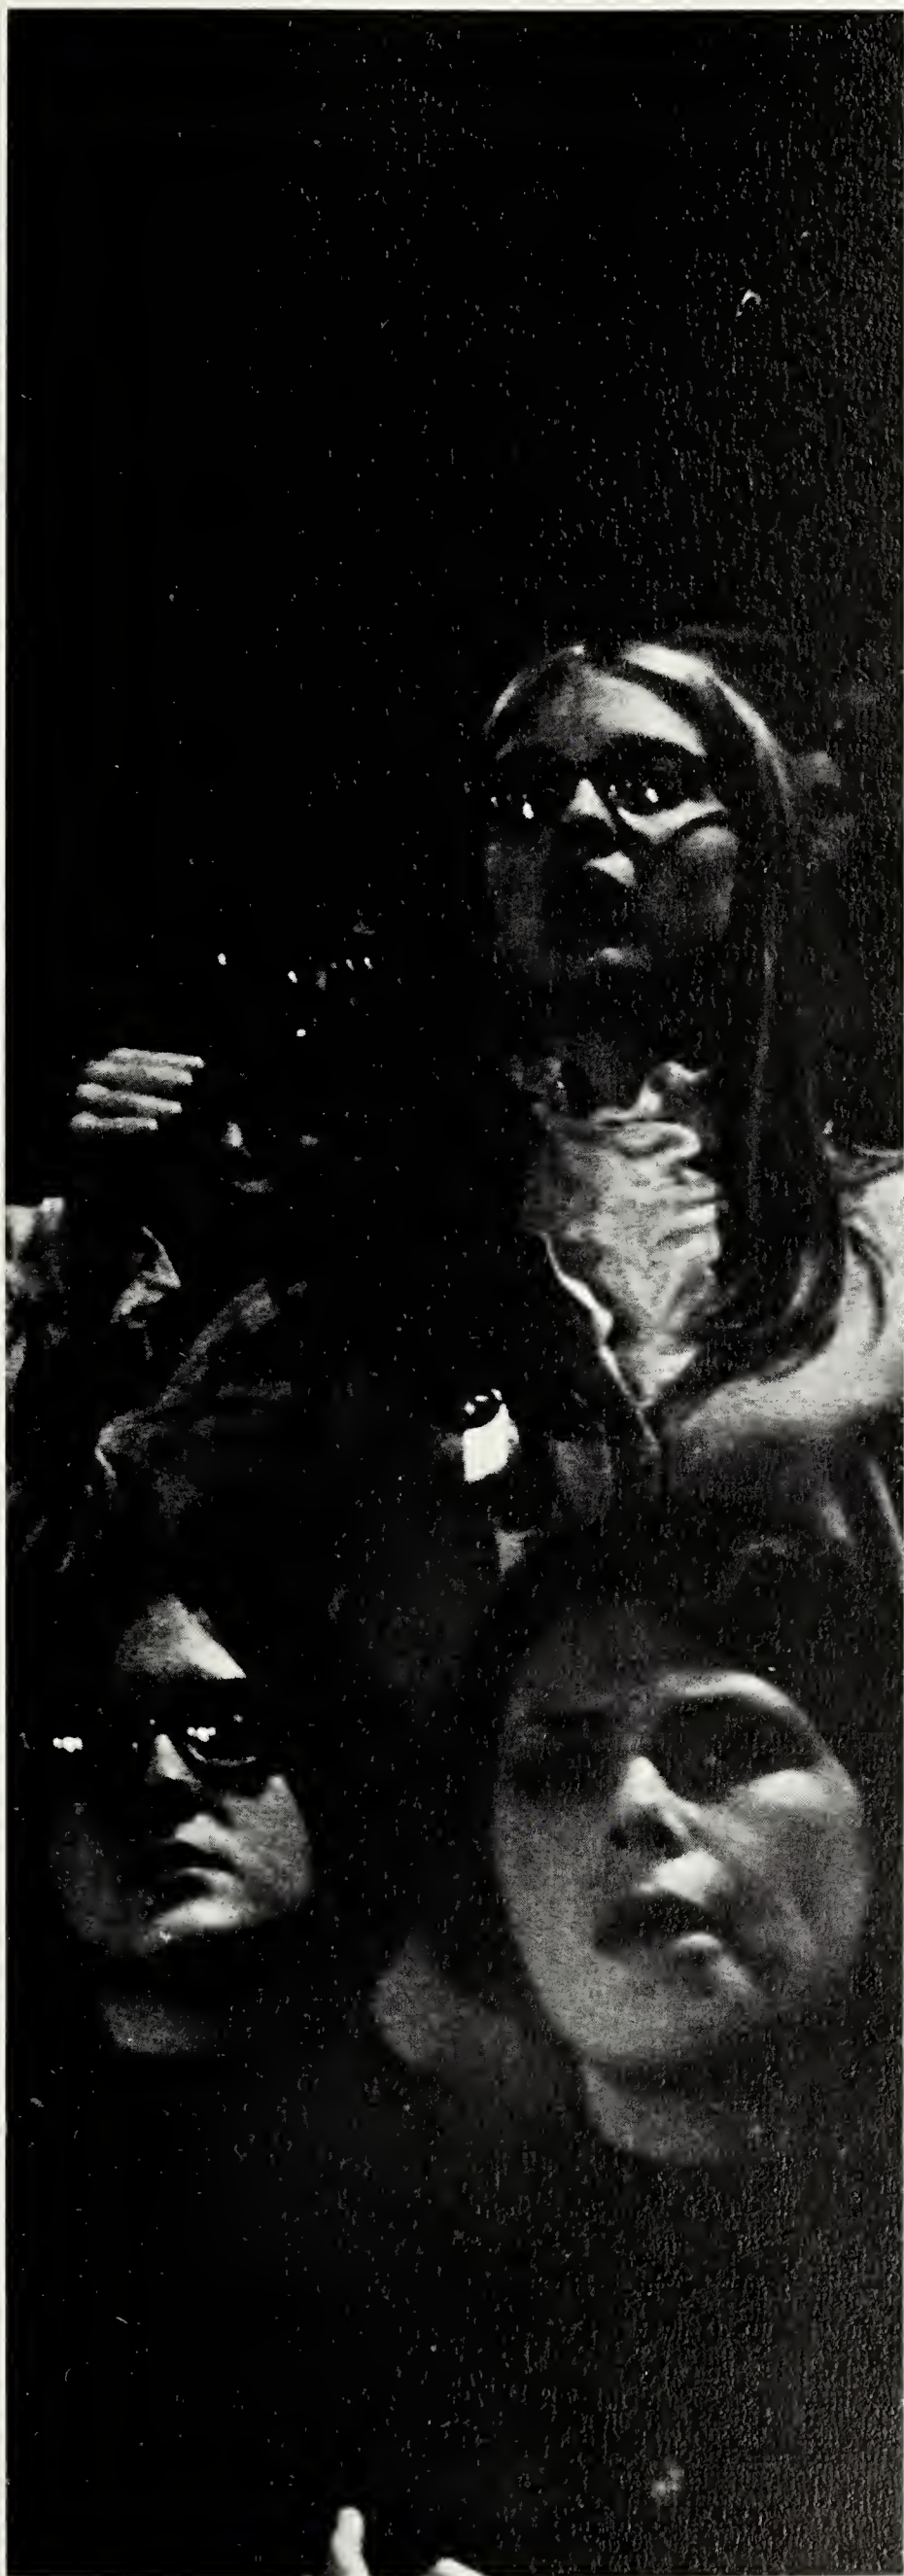

MR. RAYMOND T. CZARNIK ADVISOR
DEBBY DUNIVIN EDITOR

I am.

I am here . . . amidst smiles,
raised eyebrows,
murky bathrooms,
and
endless cliches.

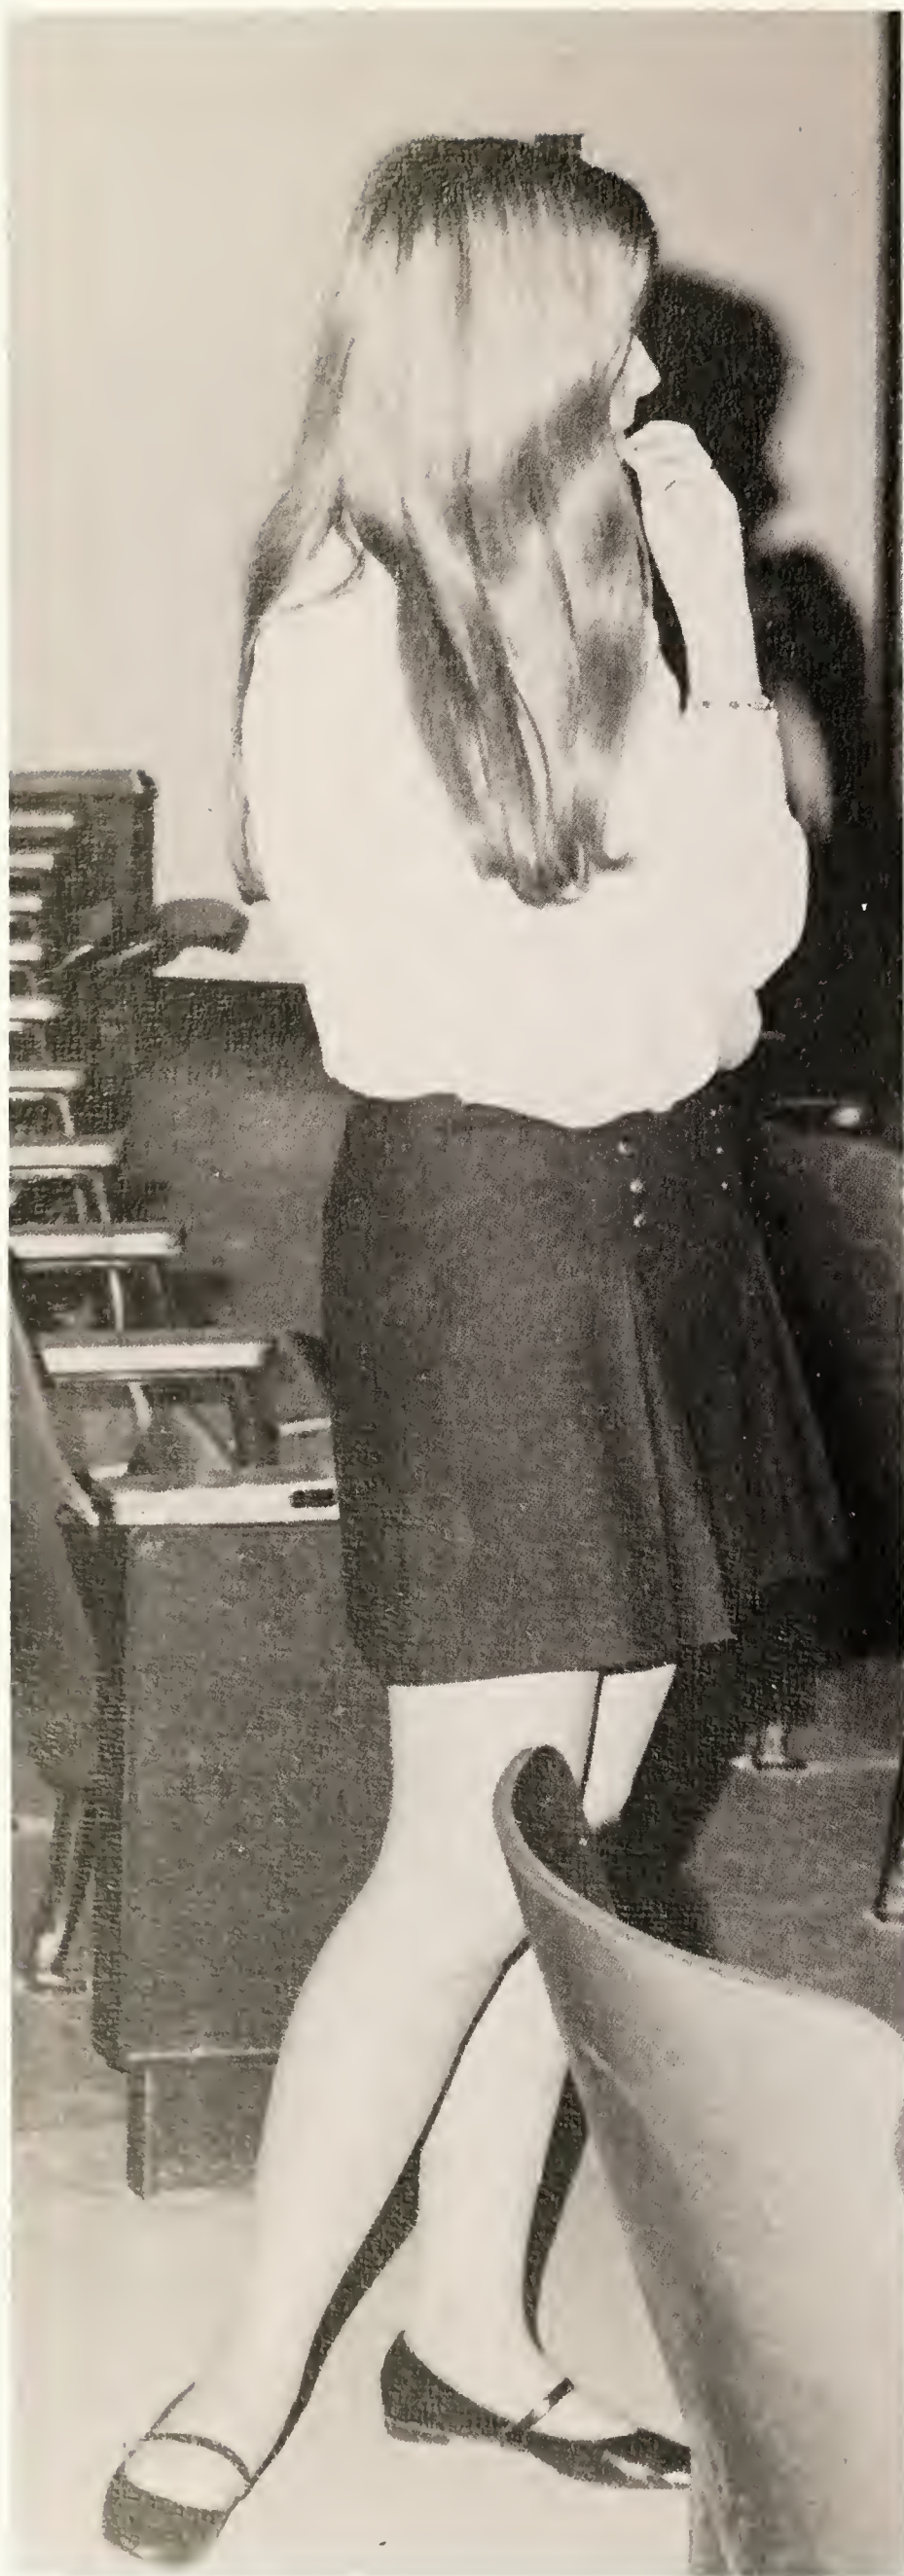

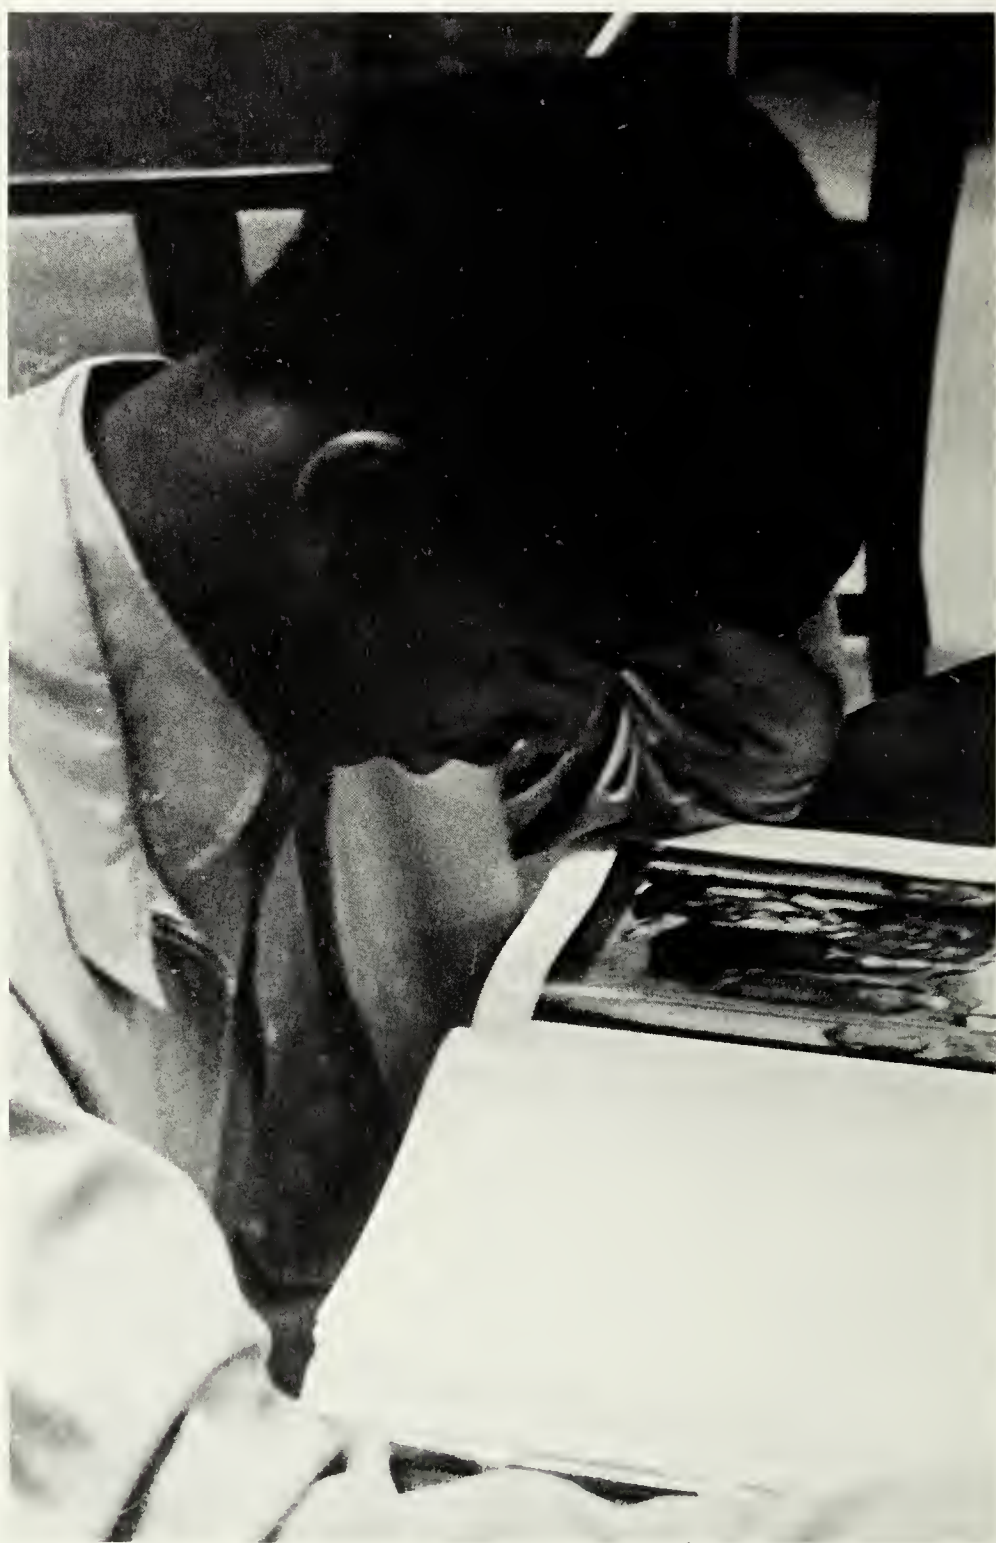

I
have made my existence known through undergrounds,
honor rolls,
and fuzzy yearbook pictures.

From Oedipus
to Rabbit, Run!
from Beowulf
to June, I've
questioned,
answered,
and slept
at times.

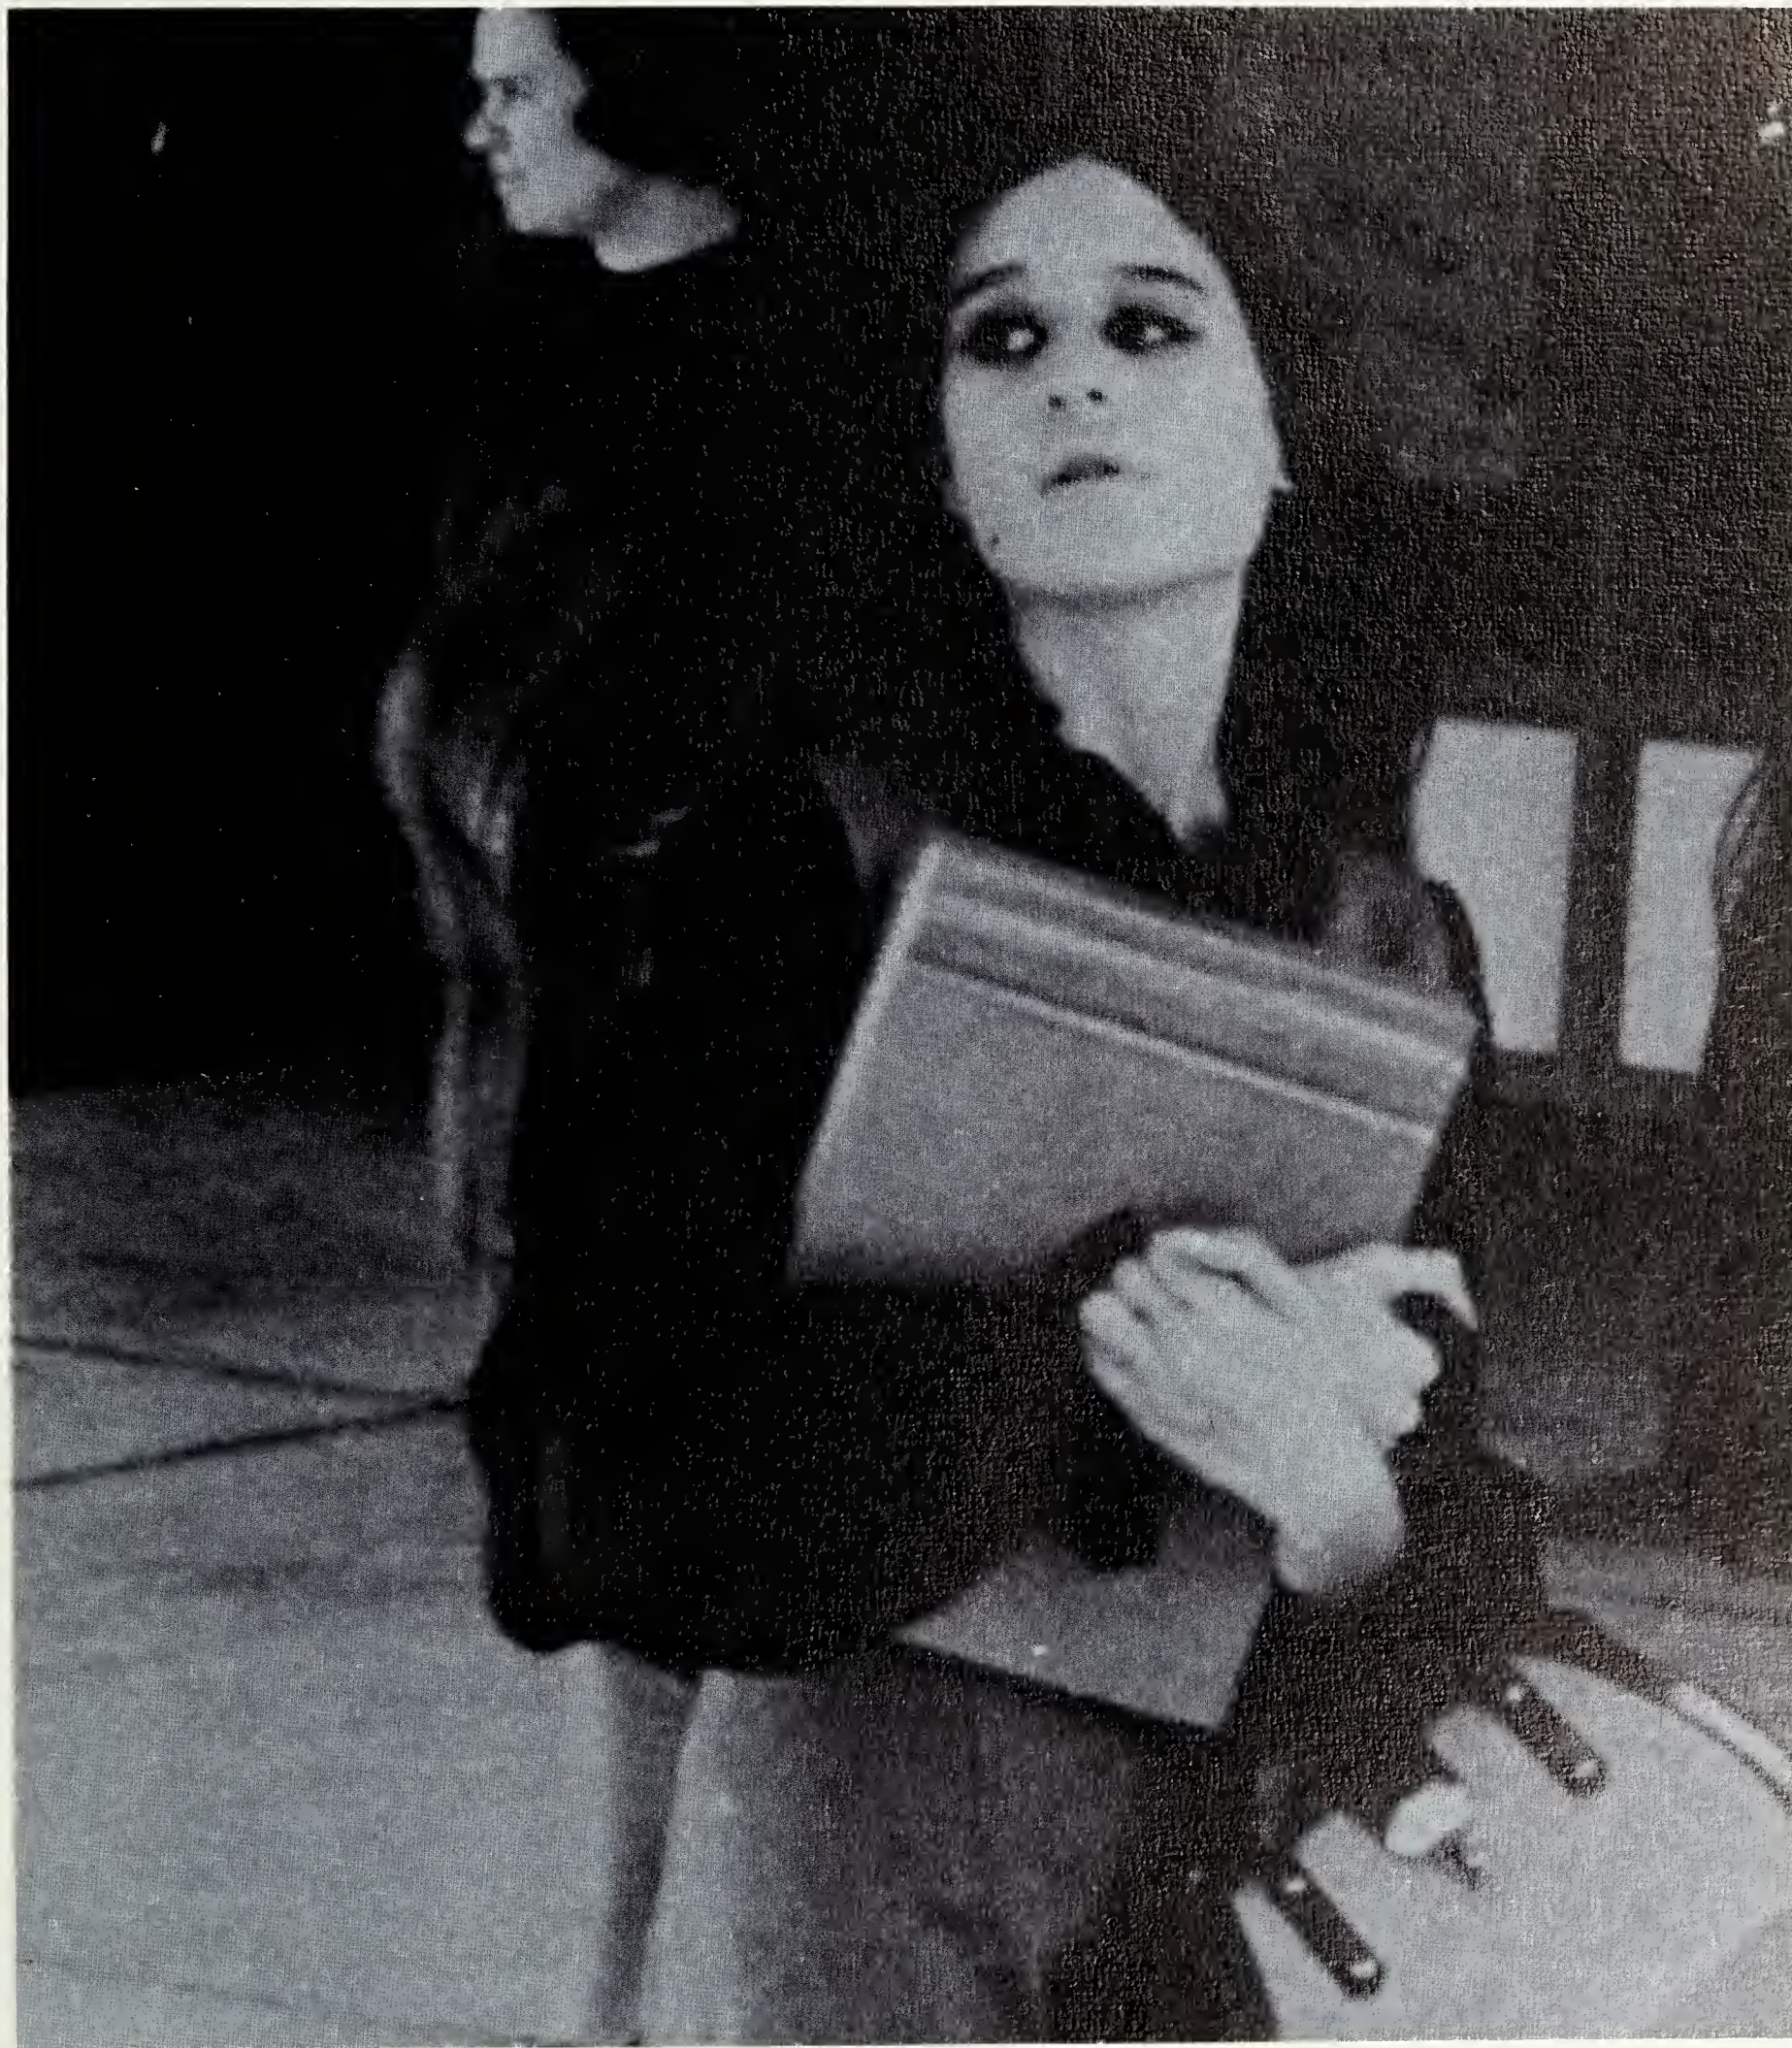

I
am no longer a puppet, (hopefully)
but an individual,
creating
and destroying.

I am . . .

. . . am I?

A bell rings,
 And like Pavlov's reflexes,
 the halls teem with
 students.
 All sizes and shapes,
 ages and grades.
 Heading their respective ways,
 gym, study hall, cafeteria,
 and class . . .
 Then, as quickly as it started,
 Silence reigns.
 Everyone has gone,
 until
 a new bell rings
 and it all starts again.

SADIE HAWKINS

The harvest moon
rises bright and full (hopefully) on the Eve of Sadie Hawkins.

Girls have one chance
to snare their man
for the annual dance.

Marryin' Sam
hitches ladies and gents
in a temporary state of matrimony.

But unfortunately the spell only lasts
til midnight!

Right: Joe Loehe provides intermission entertainment, his rendition of "Alice's Restaurant."
Below: The Renaissance provide music for the evening.

Strange things go on behind the *?!!

Tony Tancredi and Christy Hayes come in from the country to enjoy a big night in town.

THE APPLE TREE

Looks like its going to be one of those days for Becky Singlevich.

Becky Gelke has got the "whole world in her hands".

"Have an opple, my dear?" osks Joy Wilcox of Becky Gelke.

"What's your opinion, Adom?" inquires Becky Gelke.

John Pillsbury is made up for his role as King Eric.

Sherri Polk: Keep your eyes closed Hattan!

That fairy godmother, Richard Markham, sure daes have hairy legs!

Jill Clippard: "Now I know you're in there!"

"This rehearsal sure is murder!" cries Jill Clippard to Lonnie Palmer.

Lovely visions
of lavender and lace,
a couple embark
on a star-studded dream,
the annual Sweetheart Dance.
A radiant girl
dressed in her best treads softly
this night
under dimmed lights,
amid Valentines,
and swinging Cupids.

Queen, Amy Dannelly, dances the traditional dance with student government president, Ron Kaminski.

INFANTA, THE ONE-ACT PLAY

Rick Markham—Lord Severe, Sherrie Polk—Infanta

Infanta
Another play
another form of expression.
Students
telling the world
to pity a poor hunchback;
to feel.
It's all a matter
of opinion,
the idea may be right
or wrong.
The importance
is in the acting.

Coffee, tea, or . . . milk??

No, anything but that!!!

No, the punch is not spiked!!!

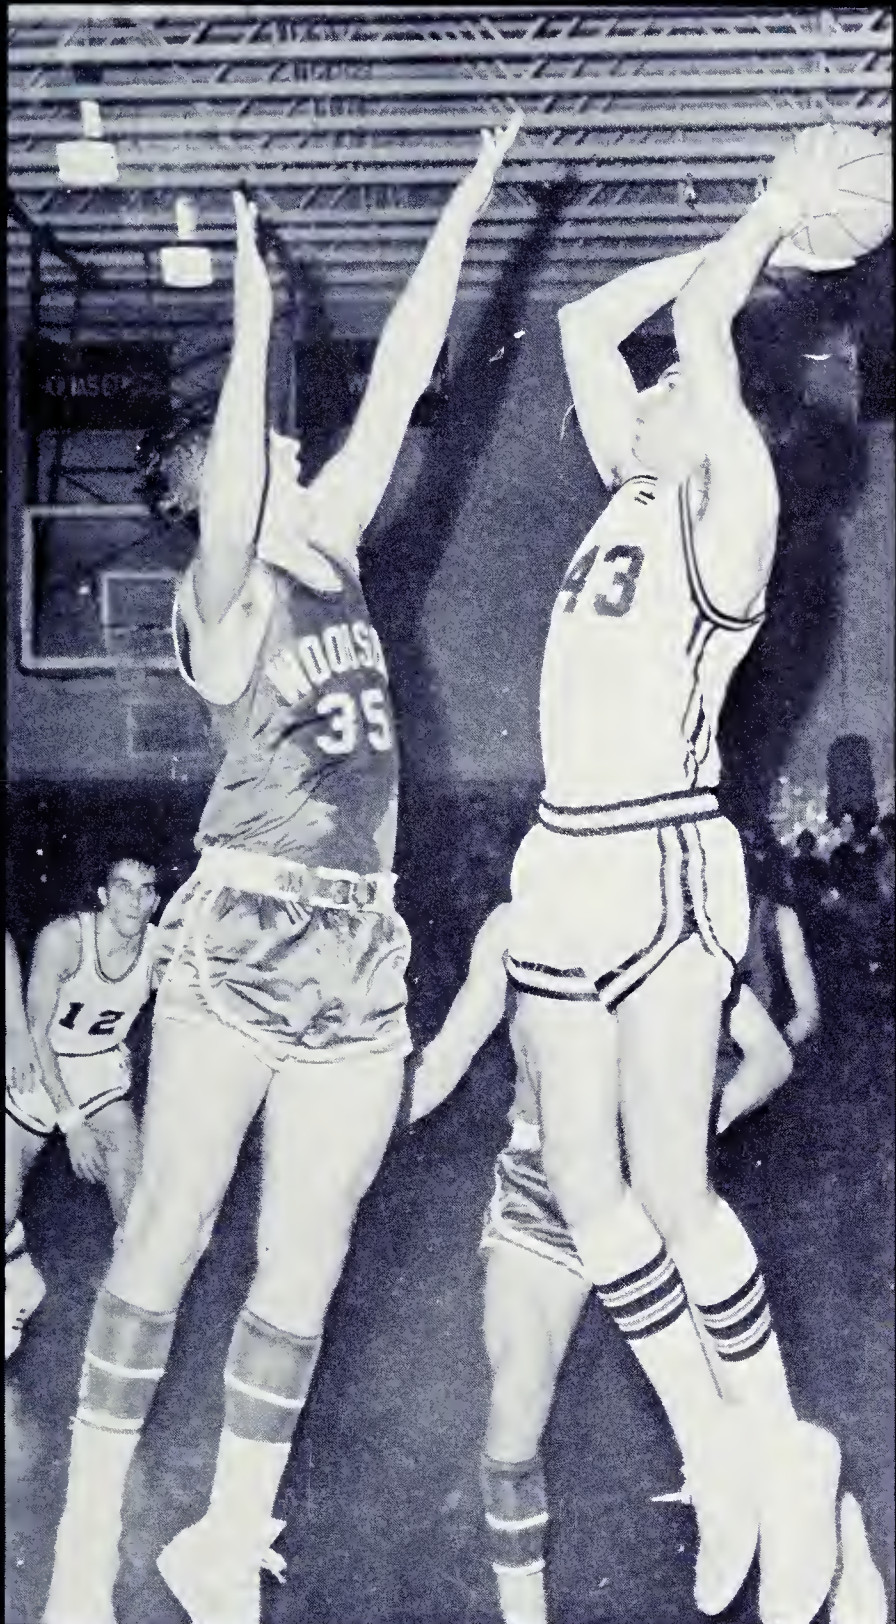

Oh yes, last night was . . .

Get into the spirit
of things.
Come out and support
the teams.
Freeze at football games,
roast through basketball.
Then,
if things get boring,
there's riflery
or wrestling
or hockey
or soccer.
Finally
spring forward for
baseball and tennis,
swimming and golf.
A whole school year
is represented
through Sports.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Two bits
all set?
ready . . .
Cheers rising above
the crowd's
uproarious din,
spirit our teams
to victory.
Screaming and jumping
through rain and
sub-zero weather,
are enough to tax
anybody.
And yet,
every year without
fail,
girls fight
frantically to
to obtain the envious position
of VARSITY
CHEERLEADER.

WEST SPRINGFIELD 25—HERNDON 8

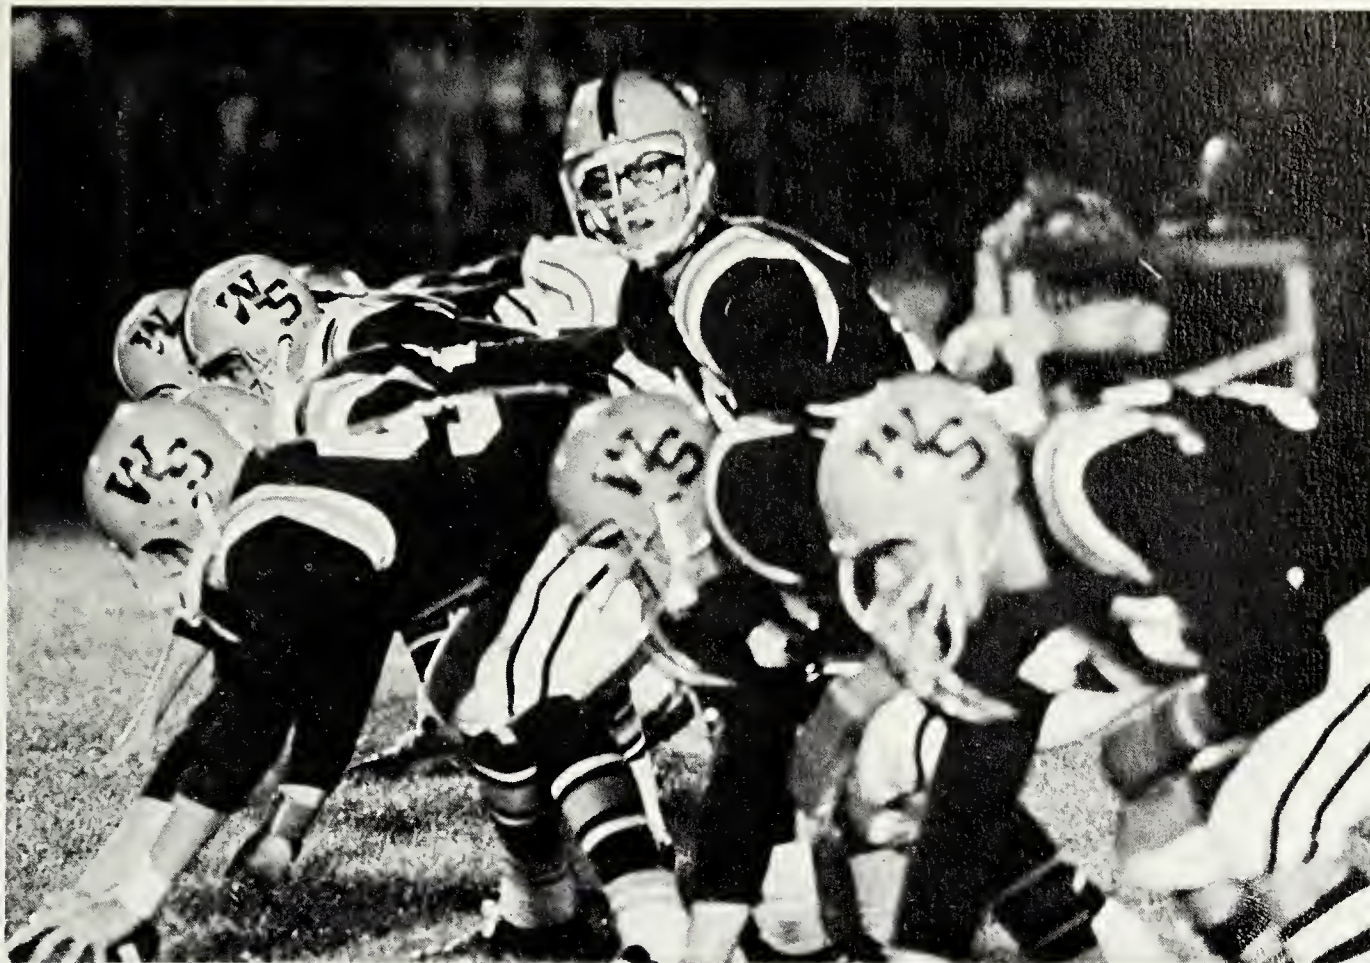

"... West Springfield appears capable of relieving the Mount Vernon Majors of their district title." That statement from the Washington Post described the Spartan's chances in 1969, and at Herndon they immediately decided to prove themselves. Mark Bailey came within one man of a touchdown on the opening kick-off return and the Spartans never slowed down. John Huddleston and Frank Mulkey sparked the Spartan ground attack with 49 and 70 yards, respectively. Huddleston scored three times rushing with the other touchdown coming on a pass from John Mundie to Gary Gaddy. Mundie, who as it turned out had his best passing night of the season, completed 7 of 13 for 122 yards. Linebackers Jim Watson and Bill Gleason bolstered the Spartan's grudging defense.

WEST SPRINGFIELD 0-WOODSON 14

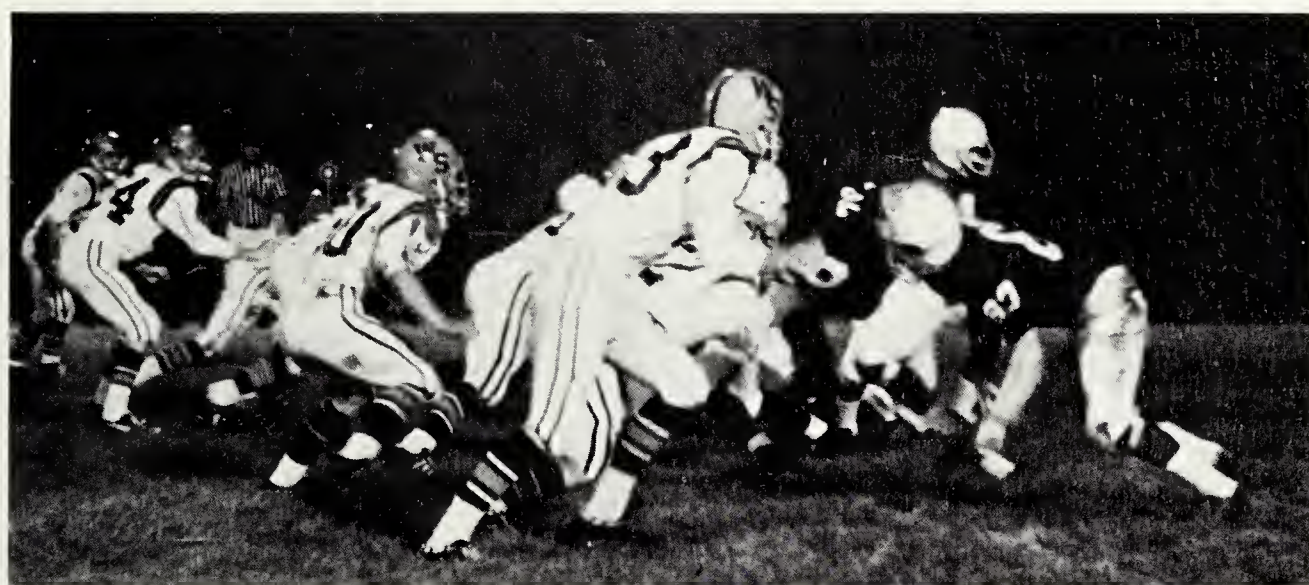

Trying to average last year's shut-out loss to Woodson, the Spartans charged out in the first half displaying a powerful ground attack. Unfortunately, its effectiveness seems to be restricted to midfield with the Spartan drives fizzling continually in Woodson's territory. Near the end of the half the Spartans failed to score with first and goal inside Woodson's ten. In the second half Woodson came to life riddling the Spartan pass defense for several first downs. All in all, the defense played an outstanding game, holding the powerful Woodson attack to two scores by causing two turnovers in interceptions by Bill Gleason and tackle Bill Meyers. John Mundie seemed to have an off night completing only 4 passes, two to converted quarterback Tim Murnane.

WEST SPRINGFIELD 7— T. C. WILLIAMS 6

Dave Joseph's extra point proved to be the decisive tally in a very close defensive struggle. Offensively, T. C. Williams couldn't penetrate the Spartan's defense losing the ball on three fumbles and two interceptions. As usual, fine performances were turned in by Matt Weden, Jim Watson and Bill Gleason. The Spartan offense led by John Mundie was plagued by dropped passes and interceptions, but came through with a touchdown on a pass from Mundie to Tom Tighe.

WEST SPRINGFIELD 7—MOUNT VERNON 6

Dave "Golden Toe" Joseph continued to come through for the Spartans scoring his second decisive extra point in a row. Again the touchdown came on a pass, this time to Gary Gaddy from Mundie. The Spartan ground attack continued its effectiveness with Huddleston and Mulkey carrying the load. On defense Gary Cerney intercepted a pass and John Tadich recovered a fumble.

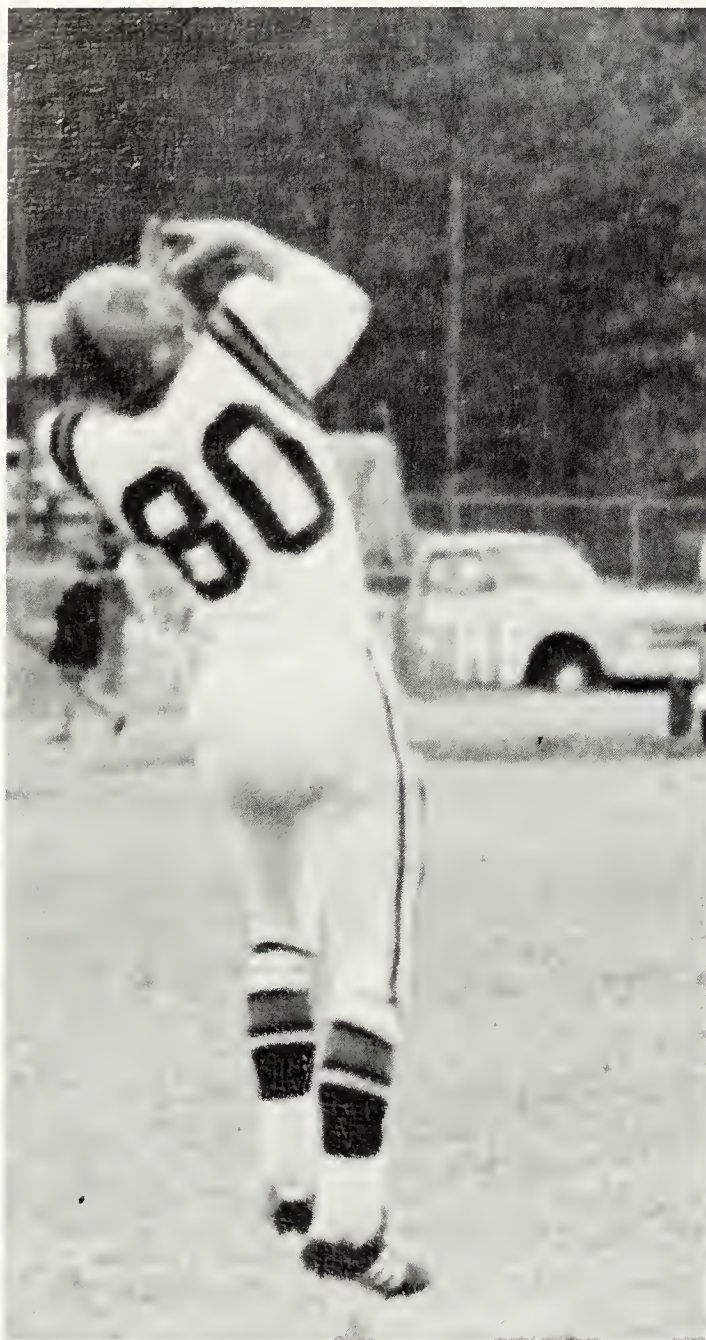

WEST SPRINGFIELD 0—MADISON 6

Suffering its second shut-out the Spartan offense sputtered at the crucial moments when the ball was fumbled on Madison's two yard line. Fullback John Huddleston ran for over a hundred yards and John Mundie passed for 90 yards as the Spartans suffered a disappointing loss to a highly ranked opponent.

WEST SPRINGFIELD 14—
FORT HUNT 6

Relying primarily on a ground attack led by John Huddleston's 105 yards and one touchdown, the Spartans overcame the ground-oriented Federals. The defensive line led by Bill Kirby and Ernie Cruz managed to hold the Federals to one score and spoiled their attempt for a two point conversion. John Mundie scored the other touchdown running and reliable Dave Joseph hit two P.A.T.'s.

WEST SPRINGFIELD 16—EDISON 6

Outstanding defense dominated the Spartans' seventh outing of the season. Fumble recoveries by Jack Kirk and John Tadich (who also had a safety) and interceptions by Gary Cerney (2) and Matt Weden (1) kept the ball away from the Eagles. Bill Kirby and Jim Watson also had an outstanding game. Scores were made by Gaddy (pass reception), Huddleston (rushing), Joseph (2 P.A.T.S) and Tadich (safety).

WEST SPRINGFIELD 2—
JEFFERSON 6

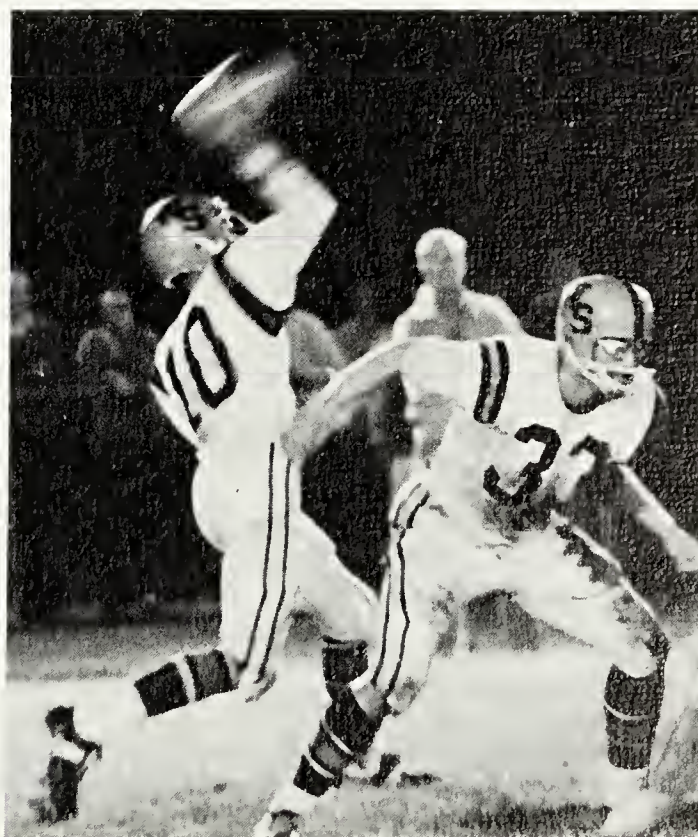

Expecting a relatively easy contest, the Spartans were shocked by Jefferson, scoring only on a safety caused by the hard rush of John Tadich on the Jefferson punter. John Huddleston rushed for 122 yards but failed to cross the goal line. Jim Watson with an interception and Dave James led the defense in tackles on the opposing Colonials as the Spartans continued to play under the spell of the Homecoming jinx.

WEST SPRINGFIELD 24—LEE 6

Annual T.P. victim Lee was overpowered. Huddleston gained 125 yards rushing scoring on two runs and a pass reception. John Mundie scored his second touchdown of the season rushing and Dave Joseph kicked three P.A.T.'s and his first and only field goal of the season. John McClelland (78 yards) and Frank Mulkey (86 yards) also ran all over the Lancers. Bill Kirby played an outstanding game at defensive tackle. Dave James and Bill Gleason blocked a Lancer punt. Fumbling on the opening kick-off, the Lancers knew West Springfield had them again.

WS 34-GROVETON 6
West Springfield demolished Groveton on a cold, wet night to gain the Gunston District Championship. John Huddleston capped a very successful season with 139 yards rushing, scoring two touchdowns to go along with scores by Gaddy (pass), Mulkey (run and 83 yards rushing), and Murnane (rush). Dave Joseph hit on four P.A.T.'s. Defensively, interceptions were made by Matt Weden and Jim Gilreath.

Coach Abell's and Coach Burkett's freshman squad turned out to be so large that two teams, an "A" team and a "B" team, were formed playing two different schedules. The "A" team played regular freshman squads from district schools while the "B" teams were matched against some of the county's larger schools.

The "A" team experienced an unusual year scoring sixty-four points and holding their opponents to the same amount over the season. Ending their season with a climactic 22-22 tie with arch-rival Lee, they didn't fair as well as the "B" team which finished the year with a 22-0 victory over Lee's "B" squad.

CROSS COUNTRY

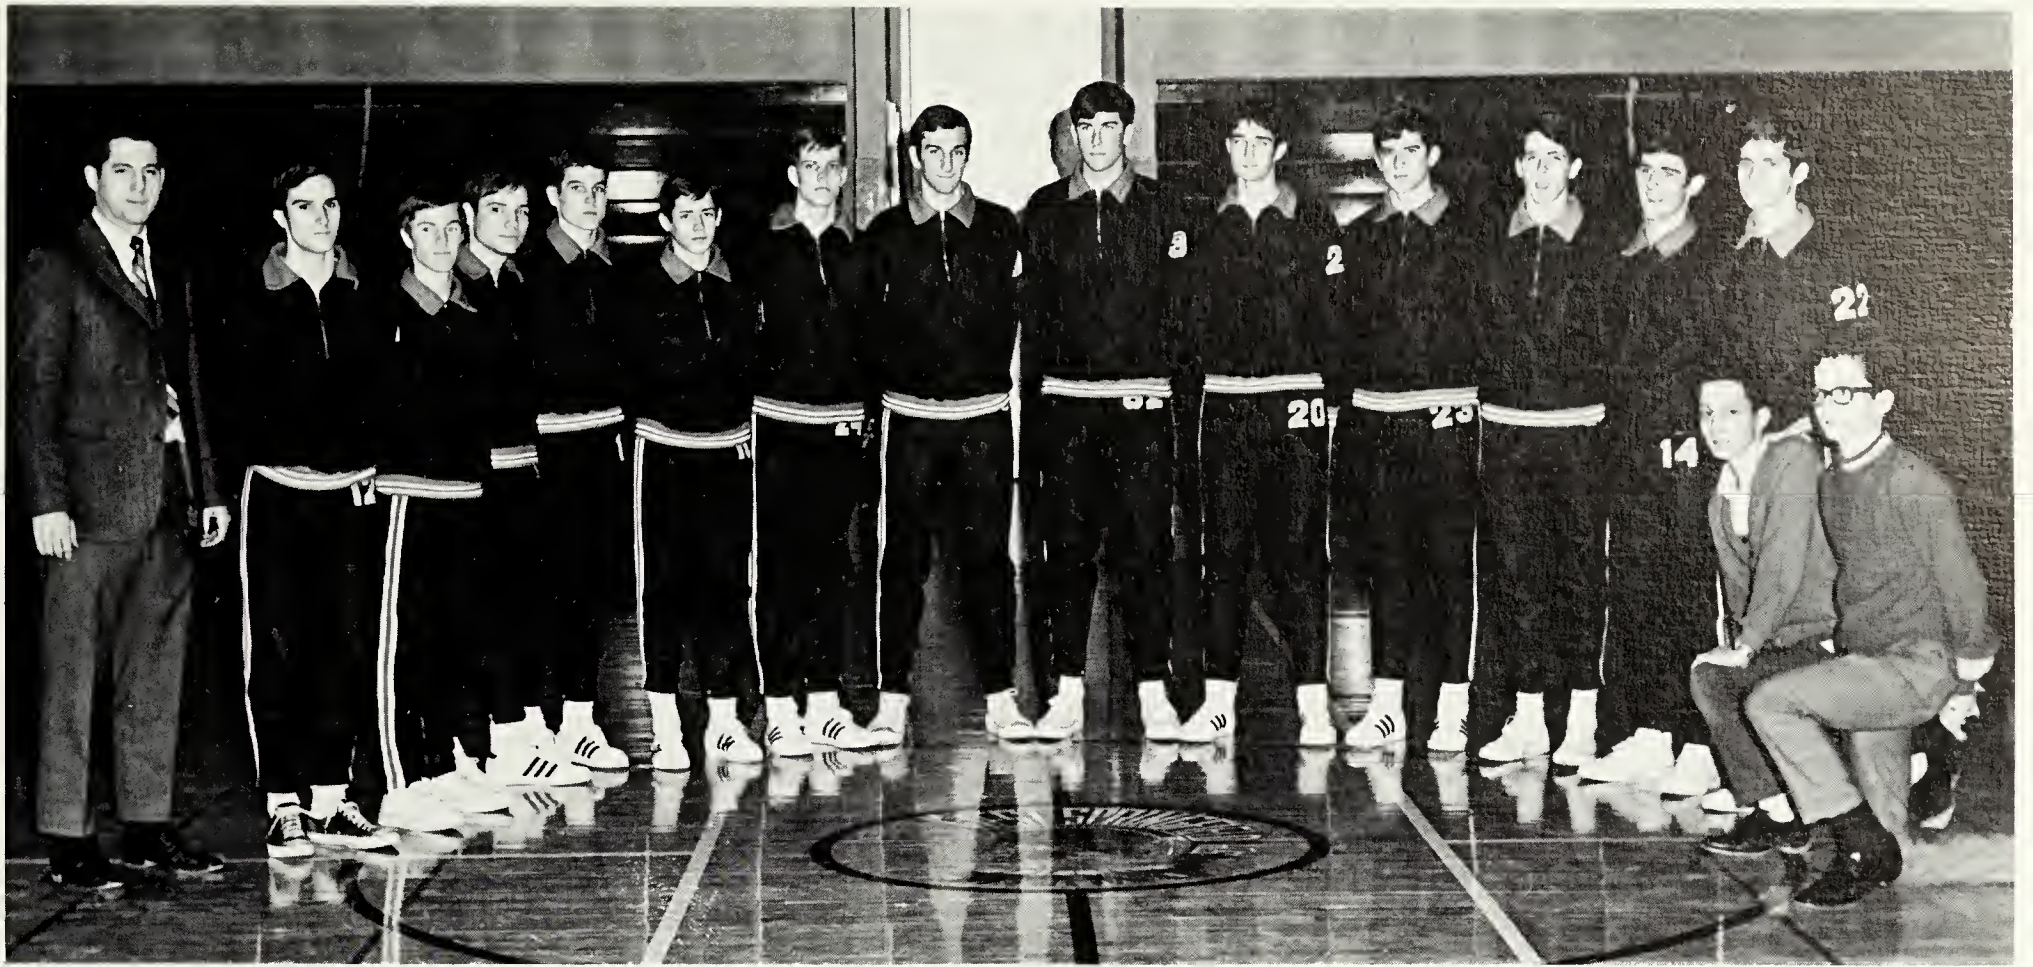

West Springfield's Varsity Cross Country Team got off to an excellent start this year with victories over Lee, Groveton, and Hayfield in three different meets. However, injuries to three key runners later in the season undermined the Spartan's hopes for their second consecutive District Title. Great individual season performances were turned in by Junior Steve Nobles and Senior Chris McDonald. Nobles set the Regional and District course records, came in third at State, placed third in the William and Mary Invitational Meet in Williamsburg, and first in all district meets. Chris McDonald, one of the more consistent of the Spartan runners, came in second only to Nobles in most of the district meets. West Springfield's final standing in the district was third place.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

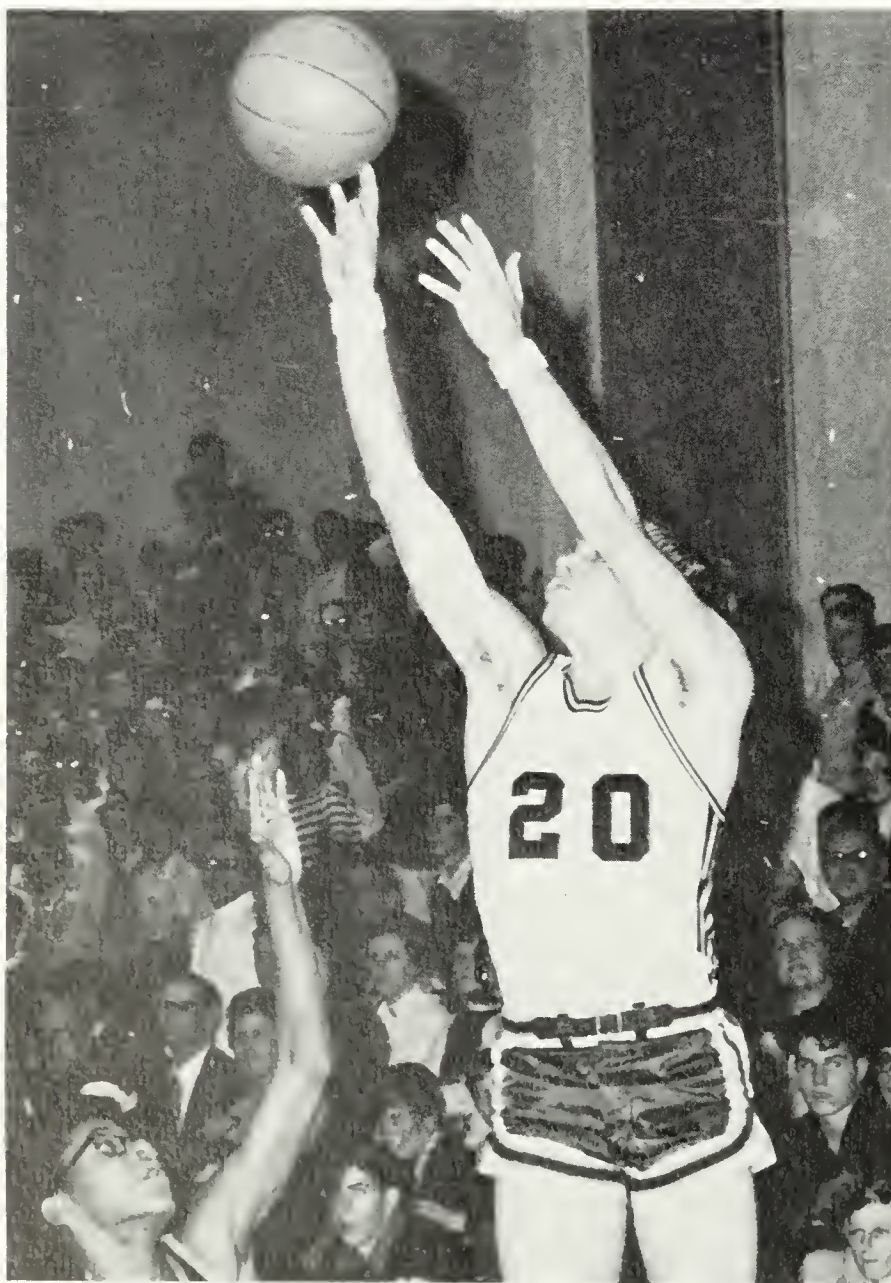

West Springfield had its finest basketball season ever in 1969. Starting Seniors George Swaim, Dwight Oldham, Jim Helbush, John Silas, and Phil Connor compiled a 16-2 record losing only to Woodson and Edison. They ended the regular season number one in the district but lost the ranking to Edison after losing two straight games to the Eagles in the Gunston District Tournament finals. The starting five was bolstered by reserves Jack Stone, Jeff Jeremiah, and Lee Patton and by a group of spirited Juniors who gained valuable game experience. Led all year long by the scoring of Jim Helbush and the aggressive defensive play of George Swaim and Phil Connor the team deserves a lot of credit for their outstanding efforts throughout the season. They established a record of which the school is justly proud.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

After notably beating Mt. Vernon by a large margin, the Freshman basketball team went on to accrue an impressive 5-5 record. The key word concerning this year's Frosh squad was teamwork. Coach Harris worked hard in perfecting this particular aspect, a quality which will be much appreciated at Varsity level in the coming years. Highlights of the season included a split with arch-rival Lee and two twenty-plus victories over Hayfield.

Although they failed to match last year's record of 7-5, the 6-6 mark of this year's team is much more impressive. Wrestling highly ranked opponents such perennial powerhouse Annandale, the team brought a new dimension to Springfield wrestling by attracting more fans and support than teams in years past. All twelve members qualified for the District Tournament with nine wrestlers eligible for the Regional competition. Jim Griel gained a fourth place while third places were held by Wes Reynolds, Andy Hamlin, Doug Trosper, and Bill Kirby. Lee Neff and John Tadich managed second place finishes with Jim Purcell and Mark Bailey ending as District Champions in their respective weight classes.

This year's JV Wrestling squad began the season with all of last year's wrestlers at the varsity level. This, combined with the fact that the squad was riddled with injuries and more players going to varsity, accounted for the team's 5-6-1 record. Bill Parker, Charles Greener, and Mark Krivouruchka were stand-outs on the 1969-70 squad. After the fine coaching of Randy Scott, the squad (consisting entirely of Freshmen and sophomores) will be a great asset to the varsity in future years.

The Varsity Hockey team began the season with an outstanding 4-0 victory over Mt. Vernon. They then proceeded to win the Gunston District Title for the third consecutive year. Led by seniors, Pris Reynolds, Kathy Schniedwind, Sue Carver, Pat Freer, Patti Gordon, and Daisy Wright, the team went on to tie for sixth in Fairfax County. In the course of the season, the Spartan Girl's scored a total of thirteen points, while allowing their opponents only four points. Donna Ruane came to the squad later in the season and greatly boosted the Spartans. The team, four juniors and three sophomores, gained valuable experience. It looks as though they will provide a strong Spartan team to carry their outstanding record over in future years.

At regional, Bev Starbird received a second place in advanced tumbling, while Marty Morehouse came in fifth in advanced uneven bars. Grace Williams came out with two awards, a fourth in advanced vaulting and fifth in advanced free exercise. These three members went on to the state competition. Lisa Bounds, Peggy Hayes, and Colleen Kirk also received high awards in the regional meet, but did not go on to state.

After losing three of its first six games the girl's Varsity had a strong second half of its season, winning all six games. The team, with nine seniors and three juniors, finished the season with the best record yet for a girl's Varsity basketball team at WSHS with nine wins and three losses, and was ranked second in the Gunston district.

Outstanding defensive players were Jody Lehmann and Connie Matos, whose rebounding and quick passing enabled the team to use the fast break frequently. Marian Arnold, Pat Frear, and Captain Kathy Schniedwind played both defense and offense moving the ball well from one end of the court to the other. Captain Sue Carver was the outstanding offensive player with an additional high-scoring game of 25 points against Edison, and averaging 15 points per game for the season. Deanne Starbird also did a fine job offensively, taking down rebounds and converting them for baskets.

This was a good year, highlighted by individual progress and teamwork.

29	Mt. Vernon 20
32	Hayfield 1

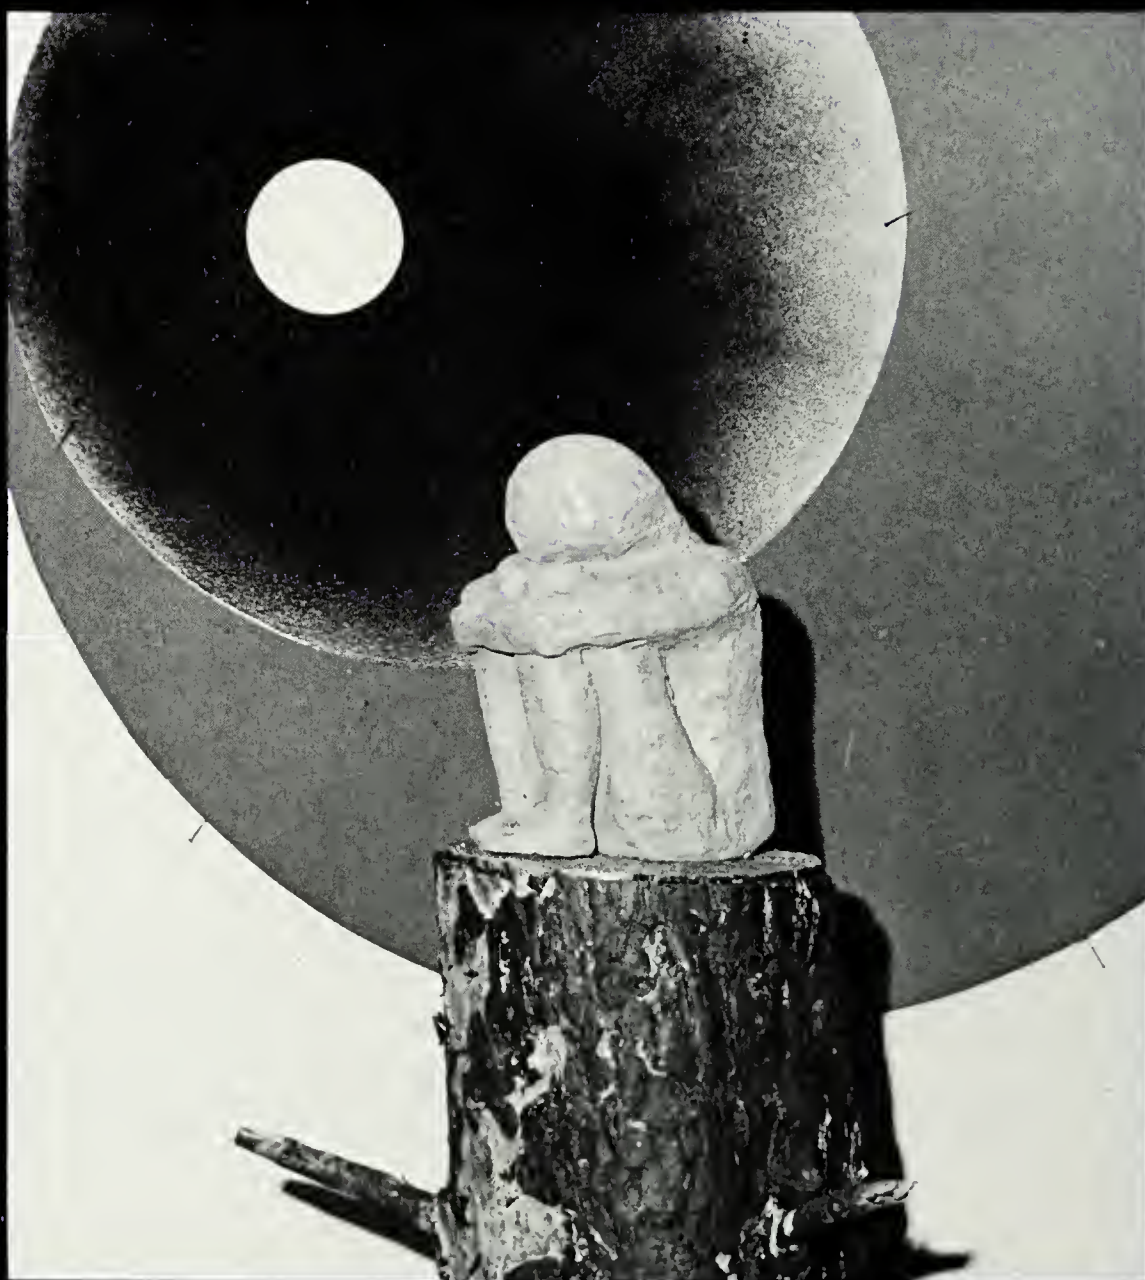

The JV Girl's Basketball team began the season with a close 21-20 victory over Edison and finished with a smashing 32-1 defeat of Hayfield. This was the first time in the history of Girl's JV Basketball at West Springfield that the Spartans have held their opponents to only 1 point. The Girl's squad finished with a good 7-5 record in a district of tough competition.

The simple things in life . . .
ice cream
and a girl's first date
become memorable experiences
to be cherished forever.

The years spent
at West Springfield
present
many opportunities
for an advantageous Spartan.
Sampling foreign cuisine
at the International dinner,
discovering hidden talent
during school productions,
exploring unfamiliar cultures
and
developing social poise.

There is an opportunity to become a writer,
or a musician,
or a teacher,
or a cook
at West Springfield.

Que dice Espanol?
Spanish!

This is the answer
to be questioned.
The Spanish Club is searching.

They want to acquaint themselves,
not only with the language
but with the people;
the culture.

Spanish is not just to be spoken.
It is to be lived.

South of the border

The Spanish Honor Society.
They delve deeply
into the culture

acquainted

Daydreams

on snow and ice

monopolize the minds
of winter sports fans.

Snow-plowing up the
ski slopes,

Etching figure-eights in
moon-lit ice ponds,

Snow days bring visions
of frozen faces
and nose-warmers to winter athletes.

THESPIANS

Bright lights
 And clamoring crowds
 exist in the future
 that awaits the Thespians
 They paint and sew,
 sing and dance.
 Acting takes more than
 just talent.
 These people have something to say.
 Acting has become their voice to the outside world.

SYMPHONIC BAND

Band risers and music stands
are symbolic of the sounds which forever emulate
from the mouths and hands
of musicians.

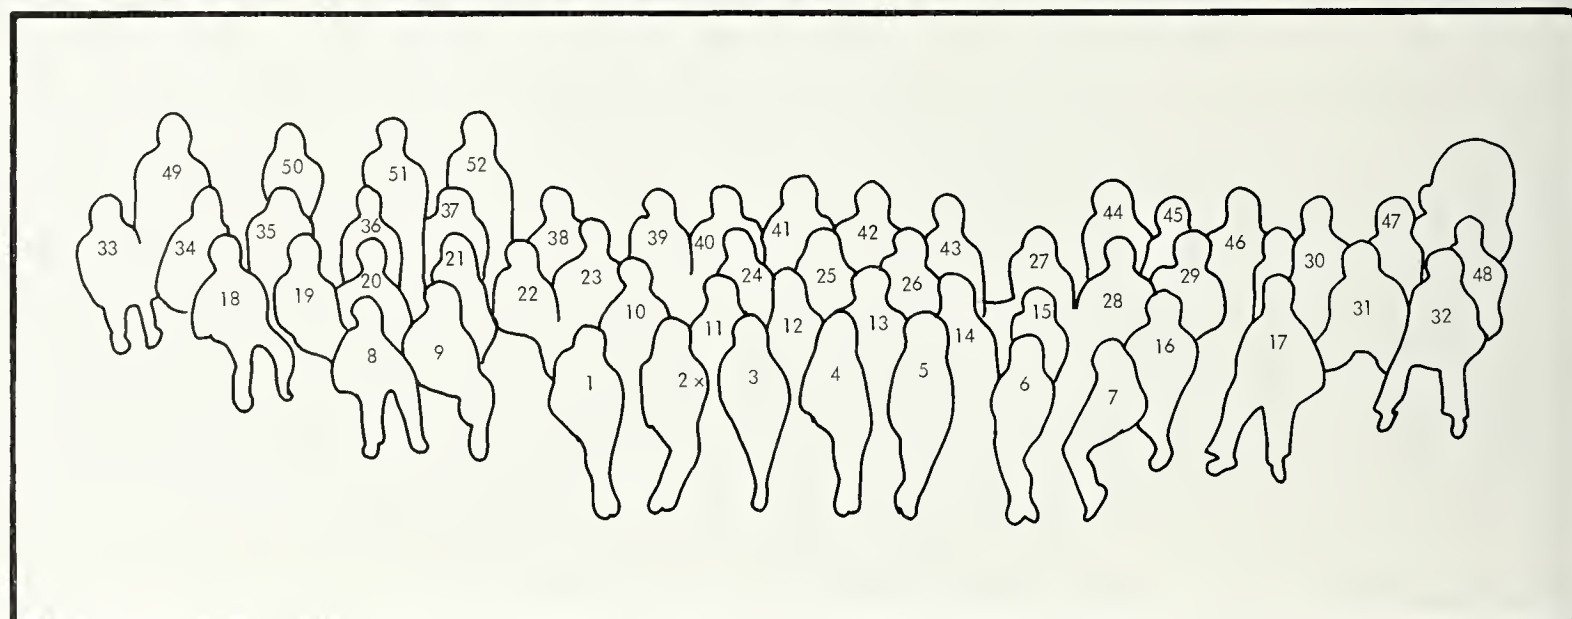

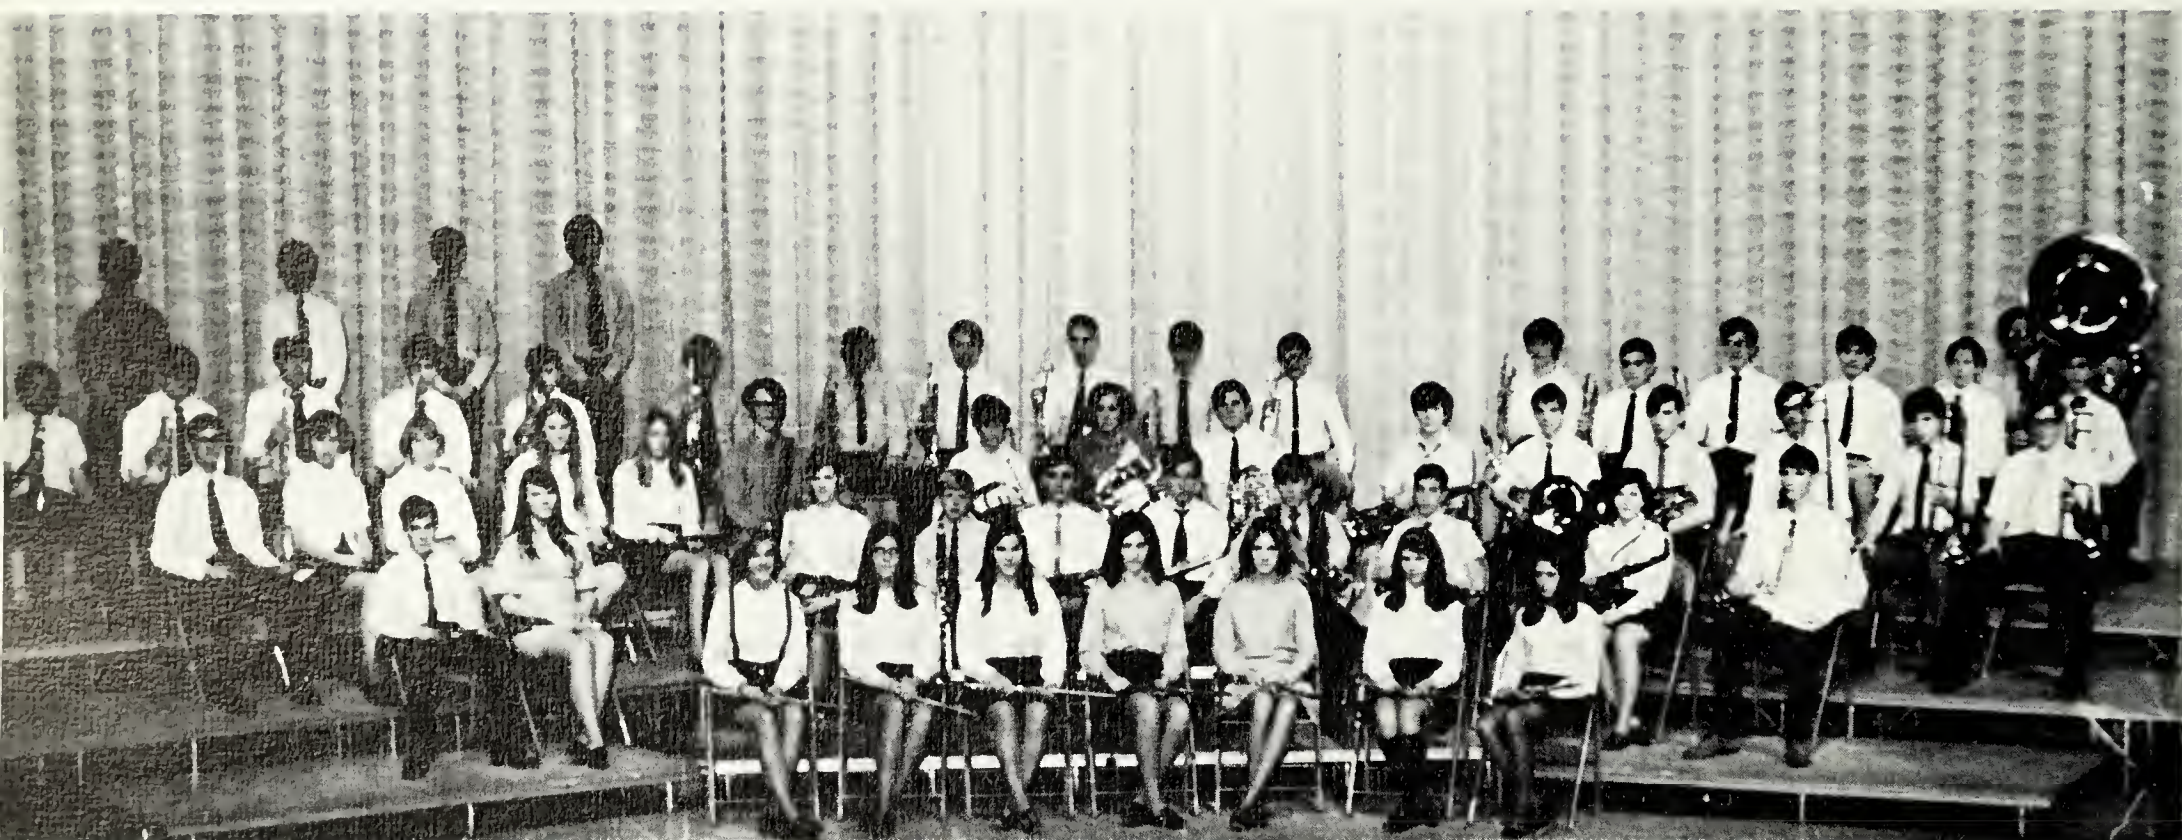

Cymbals resound
and reverberate in
the aftermath of thundering tympany.

And then it's over.

The instruments lie snug
in their velvet and canvas beds.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

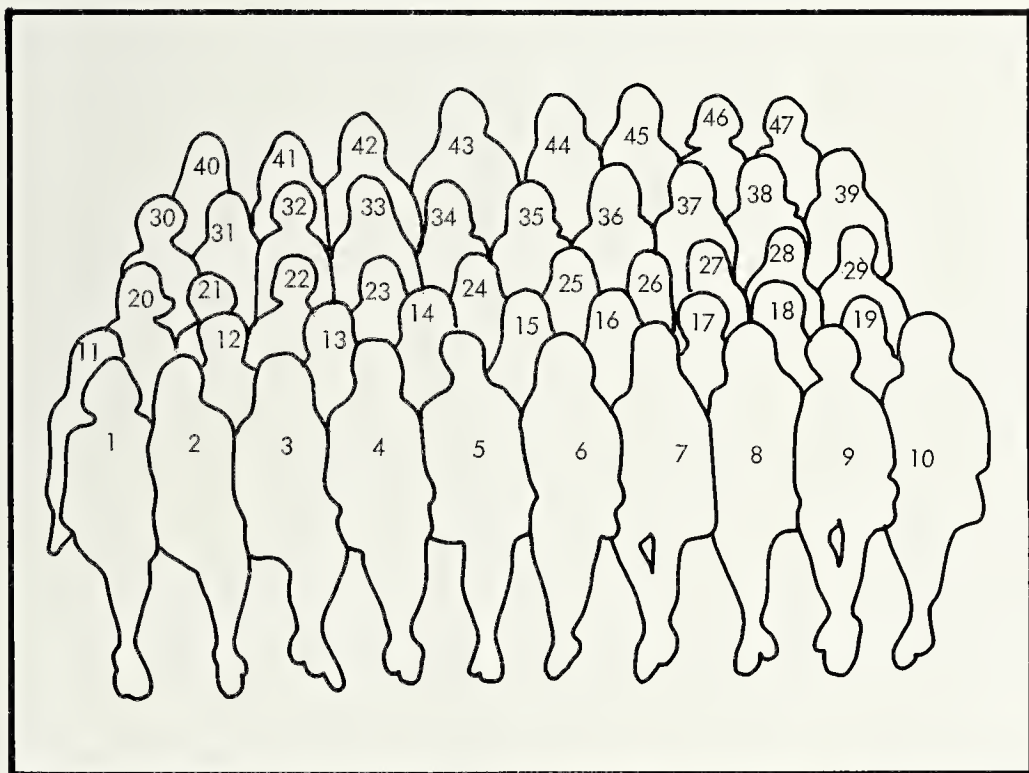

The best voices raised in song, produce sounds of the A Cappella Choir Boys and girls trained in soprano and bass perform for the pleasure of school mates.

For some the choir is a stepping stone to future hills of success.

All girls
 their voices combine
 and sweetly intermingle
 They
 weave the most intricate tales of love and romance . . .
 and instill in one
 an awesome reverence
 for song.

"To dream the Impossible Dream"
 a theme which races through the minds
 of ambitious juniors.
 Visions of class rings
 and
 high college board scores evoke delusions of grandeur,
 not to be scorned.
 "To fight the Unbeatable Foe"
 There are unattainable pinnacles
 to be scaled,
 fortunes to be amassed,
 but give them a chance.
 They have at least
 one more year to go.

Sponsors: Mrs. Virginia Shearin and Mr. John Shaw

By this time
they're in the upper half having played the game

Satisfaction comes harder,
lockers are no longer a problem,
just a convenience

Leaders now, of all the clubs,
no longer mere members,
but planners, organizers

Class spirit grows as the
"all important" year looms ahead,
College boards, rings

They look toward the future
with anxiety and expectation:
Facing a new game is not easy.

Sophomores

are an entirely different class
of people.

They are satisfied, secure, even a bit conceited.

Those ridiculous freshman feelings are gone — but they do remember — and pity.

They're always taking the late bus home —
After school is for being in a club.

Belonging!

They're always roaming the halls at 7:30 a. m.
Mornings are for decorating or set construction.
Useful!

They're always at the games —
Fridays are for wearing orange and blue,
and screaming your head off.
Spirit!

But hope remains —
I still have two more years.

Walking down the halls
on that first day,
What goes through their minds?
Excitement?

There's not enough time!

Get your locker number —
Well, nobody told me how to open the stupid thing. —

Get your schedule —
You mean it's all the way back down that hall? —
Panic?

Going through the movements,
trying to get it all together,
What goes through their minds?

After settling down
in the halls of West Springfield,
What goes through their minds?
Hope?
I still have three more years!

One Afternoon
the sun grew dim,
and dimmer,
then dark . . .

The Flowers retreated
and the animals slept.

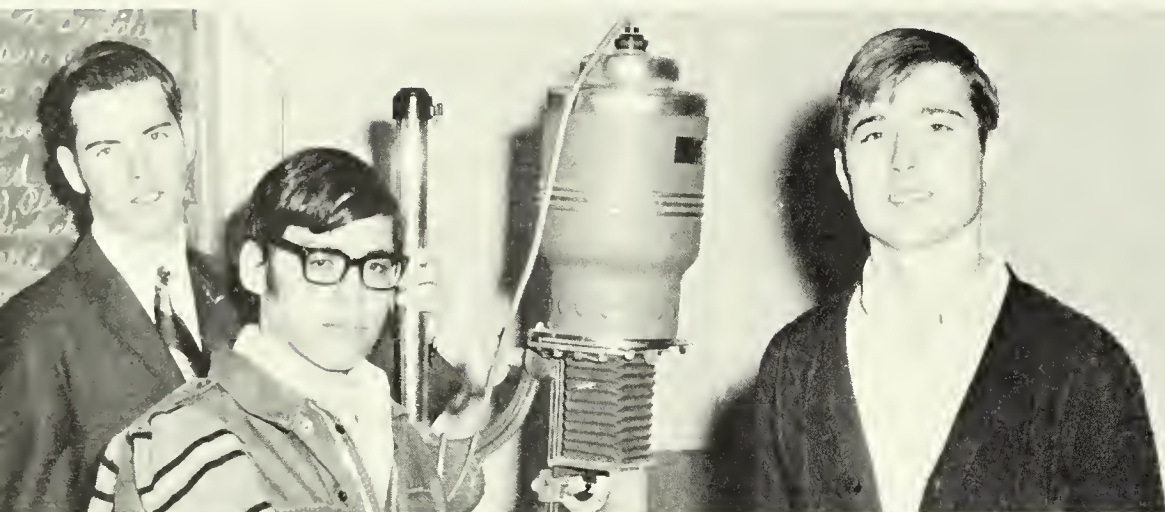

An eclipse was in effect.

It's path was directed
in an arch
upsetting the balance
on nature.

Suspended in the sky
a black ball surrounded by a glowing corona
of light.

An ominous silence
hung over the earth
the air grew cold,
and damp . . .

It lasted
only three minutes.

As an integral part of West Springfield,
the Olympian exists . . .
in the minds
of Spartans.

Snoit A. Cilbup I,
works hard to remain no. 1
in a competitive world
of publications.

The talent
to capture a yearful
of memories
does not come easily.

Copy cowers in the corner,
to escape
proof-reading and inevitable re-typing.

Keys tip-toe out the door, obviously to avoid recognition,
and layouts have been permanently mislaid.

But,
the deadlines approach
and pass,
the final product
is questionable.

Lower Left—Sheila Koughan, Business Manager
Below—Mr. Czarnik, Sponsor

The Olympian
is a leatherbound life.

A year of immortal memories
to be recalled in later days when YOUNG will be yellowed with age.

A chronicle
of three thousand students,
their successes and failures.

An expression caught by the eye that never lies suggests special moments.

A prospectus for life . . .
